Dissolve blessed unicorn horn in water; boil the solution. Add water until crimson fumes cease to come off, and enough iron-gall nut ink to render the solution clear. To this add a solution of gemstone (Orprase) dust and chuul spittle, as long as any precipitate is produced. Wash this precipitate thoroughly with water acidulated with oak tannins, and dry in a warm place for an hour.

VERSIÓN INGLESA
ENGLISH VERSION

The relationship between visual and verbal forms of representation has been a topic of discussion for many centuries. In the Renaissance, Leonardo da Vinci argued for equality between the two arts and Horace's dictum "ut pictura poesis" (as painting so poetry) has beeen repeated frequently by artists and writers alike.
Romanticism emphasized the creative process that was at the core of all artistic expression, and ideas abounded in the nineteenth century about the synthesis of art forms, Wagner's proposal of the Gesamtkunstwerk being a particularly prominent one.
In recent decades, the boundaries between the different arts have become blurred. Not only the traditional categories within the disciplines but also demarcations of the disciplines themselves are now less clearly delineated.
The project is intended to inquire into the ways in wich the visual arts influences or fertilize the literary arts, and vice versa. What are the results when an artist chooses one medium over the other, moves from one to the other, or combines the two?
Why does a writer choose to express him- or herself in visual form?

History has generated a large number of artists and writers taking recourse in each other's mode of expression with fascinating results".

"The dual muse", Johanna Drucker. The writer as artist, the artist as writer.

I AM CONTINUALLY READING (OR TURNING AWAY FROM READING) IN THE ART MAGAZINES, THE AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL MINUTIAE AND AIRY GENERALISATIONS ON ART AND LIFE OF ARTISTS WHOSE WORK SEEMS TOO TRIVIAL TO JUSTIFY EVEN THEIR OWN INTEREST ON IT. ¿Cuál es el sentido de la vida?

¿Es Dios culpable del sufrimiento?

¿Hay vida después de la muerte?

¿Dónde hallar respuesta a las grandes cuestiones de la vida?

¿Diría que en…

A Fata Morgana (Italian: [ˈfaːta morˈɡaːna])

is a complex form

of superior mirage

that is seen

in a narrow band

It is an Italian term named after the Arthurian sorceress Morgan le Fay, from a belief that these mirages, often seen in the Strait of Messina, were fairy castles in the air or false land created by her witchcraft to lure sailors to their deaths.

(...) A Fata Morgana may be seen on land or at sea, in polar regions, or in deserts. It may involve almost any kind of distant object, including boats, islands, and the coastline.

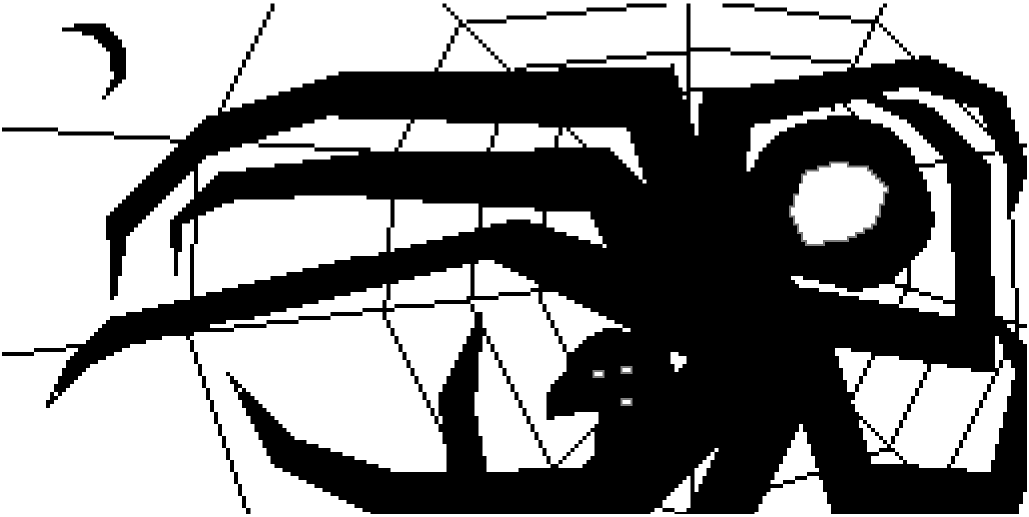

Often, a Fata Morgana changes rapidly. The mirage comprises several inverted (upside down) and erect (right side up) images that are stacked on top of one another. Fata Morgana mirages also show alternating compressed and stretched zones.[1]
